

Creating a Butterfly Garden

Cut and paste the sentences in order. Match the correct picture to the sentence.

Select nectar-producing plants.

Place a plant in each hole.

Dig holes for planting in an area where plants will get plenty of sunlight and will be protected from winds.

Water plants occasionally.

Add hiding places such as rocks and wood.

Make a watering hole where butterflies can get their nutrients.

Clear and prepare the soil that will be used for planting.

Enjoy watching the butterflies gather in the garden.

